JOINT STUDENT ACTIVITIES INITIATE '68-69 SCHOOL YEAR AT U.S.D.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --More than 1700 freshmen and returning students at the University of San Diego arrived at the University's Alcala Park campus for orientation and registration for the fall semester yesterday. The students are enrolled in the University's College for Women, the College for Men, and the School of Law.

The 250 freshmen at the two colleges will share in joint orientation activities this week. Officers of the University's administration and student body welcome new students in a joint convocation Friday (Sept. 6) at 9:00 a.m. in the College for Women Theatre.

Placement testing, social activities, and counseling with faculty advisors filled students time this week.

Two new tests were introduced at the College for Men. The Political Science Department of the College administered a test to exempt competent students from the American Government requirement. The English Department for the first time conducted an English composition test to determine a student's level of proficiency in English.

Orientation week activities will be highlighted Friday by freshmen reconstructing the 80 foot high "U" at 10:30 a.m. on the Western slope of the University campus. Upper classmen will supply whitewash and direct the project.

Students of the College for Women register for classes Saturday. College for Men students complete registration Friday.

An ASB welcome dance will be held Saturday for all students of the University. A guitar Mass at 9:00 a.m. and beach party in the afternoon are scheduled for Sunday. Orientation will end with the celebration of the Mass of the Holy Spirit and the installation of ASB officers on Friday, September 13.
